TRANSCRIPTION

Om Morgen en drog Busse¹ og jeg fra Civitella over den lille Bye Rocca St: Stefano til Subiaco hvor [vi] tyede til Malernes almindelige Kneipe. Vi traf der en heel Mængde forsamlede i det grotesk med Caricaturer decorerede Spiiseværelse. Desværre ere alle herværende nu Landskabsmalere men Livet er vel muntert nok. Med at løbe omkring og see alle de maleriske Gjenstande havde jeg nok at gjøre. Jeg besøgte ogsaa Kapudsiner Klosteret; men hvortil alle disse prægtige Sager for mig da jeg ikke har Tiid til at gjøre noget ordentligt.

27. I have been thinking of writing you about the Valley of the Rhine, and the great beauty of the country, and the great number of castles and fortifications, and the great number of churches and monasteries, and the great number of towns and cities, and the great number of people who live there.
